Le Clos Saint Cadreuc was a farm ,outbuildings of a former priory, built in 1633. This large stone house has two beautiful longères, separated by a rock garden. In a quiet, wilderness and only 4kms from the sea, the Clos Saint Cadreuc is a haven of peace, calm and tranquility in the heart of the Emerald Coast. The rooms, spacious, comfortable and non-smokers, are all equipped with excellent bedding and each has a private bathroom with shower or bath, WC and separate bathrooms. Their decoration is personalized and gives them a welcoming and relaxing atmosphere. The breakfasts are known to be very rich and the host table offers a refined and traditional cuisine, essentially based on seafood and accompanied exclusively of organic wines. All meals are served in a large room (75 sqm), facing a fireplace of the 18th century.
