Our charming bed and breakfast, with its two clear and large rooms, is located in the picturesque village of Balleroy, with its 17th century château. In a family atmosphere, it will provide you a comfortable stay from where you will easily reach all the interesting places. At the edge of a beautiful forest, between Bayeux and Saint-Lô, it is an ideal place for discovering Normandy, from Honfleur to the Mont-Saint-Michel. Close to the house, a small dependence fitted out in a holiday cottage (gîte) can welcome 2 or 3 people. 15 miles south of D-Day's Omaha Beach, 10 miles west of Bayeux and its beautiful 11th century cathedral and historic tapestry, 60 miles east of Mont St. Michel and a 3-hour drive from Paris.
