In the heart of Provence, at the doors to the Camargue, just eight minutes from Baux de Provence and Saint Remy, the rectory in Provence, a characterful 17th century residence, awaits you. The Saint Thomas chapel, adjoining the property that belonged to the Order of the Templars, gives it its historical character. You will appreciate the place, with its very French decoration and absolute calm. The copious breakfasts are served in the garden with its typically Provencal plants (to 8h at 10h30). They are accompanied by six different types of jams and lavender honey. A real delight ! Marie-Chantal GAYTE, native of Avignon, gives you all her attention so that you will have an unforgettable stay.
