Nearby the town of Caen (9 miles), and in a seaside village typical of "Bessin Normand" with its medieval church and white stone houses, Marie and Alain are making you very welcome in the Prieuré where they live the whole year in their quiet and flowered garden. The place is an ideal starting point for regional trip in the heart of Normandy. In a closed private park you will be yourself at home in one of two high-standing rooms situated in an stone old building restored with antique furniture, and brand new bathroom ins-tallations. A french breakfast with local pastry is served by the "maitresse de maison" in the dining room of the house. Alain and Marie will can also help you for all travelling problems. Possibly they can with their documentation and, if necessary, with collaboration of "Office du tourisme de Langrune sur mer" give advice to you for all touristic planning in the area.
