Annie et Jean-Pierre are pleased to welcome you from April 1st to October 30 in their restored old farmhouse from 1852, matching tradition and comfort. Three rooms with original and elaborated decoration can accomodate up to 8 persons. All rooms have private facilities. For the table d'hotes on Tuesday and Saturday, Annie and Jean-Pierre concoct delicious, regional food. Homemade jams and marmelade as well as pastries are served for breakfast. This little place of paradise in southern Auvergne, close to Le Puy en Velay, dominating the Loire valley and the Emblavez with the oldest volcanos of the Auvergne is an ideal place to spend a romantic week-end or a holiday with the family or friends. Come and discover the treasures of this preserved nature, which offers many hiking possibilities or discover the variety of the cultural heritage. Hikers, walkers, gourmets, nature-lovers, guests from everywhere, welcome at the "Pierres Bleues".
