It is in the heart of the Pyrénées-Orientales, in the pretty town of Prades that Benoit and Robson will have the pleasure to welcome you. The house that goes back to 1870 offers 5 en suite bedrooms, a spacious garden, private parking and a fantastic view of the Canigou, this Pyrenean summit so cherished by the Catalan people. Start your day with a delicious breakfast served on the shady terrace, stroll the streets of Prades during market days, participate in the famous Pablo Casal festival or simply conquer the Pyrenees. In addition to the Pablo Casals festival, events such as the "Cine-Rencontres", the Roman days, the summer Catalan university, the Festival de Bandes-Dessinees or the Canigou race provide a large choice of activities. Prades is ideally situated, just 45 minutes from Perpignan and its airport, 15 minutes from the beach at Vinca Lake and 50 minutes to the mountains for winter sports. A five-minute stroll takes you to shops and restaurants
